K. Scott Toussaint Elected to Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors

SENECA, S.C. – K. Scott Toussaint of Toussaint Law Firm, PC in Seneca, S.C. was officially elected as a member of the Oconee County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors and will serve a three-year term starting in January 2010.

Toussaint was elected after a nomination process involving a committee made up of chamber members. Bette Borman, a nomination committee member, said “Scott was selected because of his active support of the Chamber, his community involvement and his interest in furthering the goals of the Chamber.”

As an Oconee County business owner, Toussaint welcomes the chance to serve a term on the Board of Directors. “I’ve been a business owner for eight years in Oconee County and have enjoyed the positive business climate,” said Toussaint. “I understand the role of a small business in a local economy and want to make the Chamber accessible and useful to all business owners.”

Toussaint Law Firm has been a member of the Oconee County Chamber of Commerce since 2006. Toussaint is also involved with the Westminster Chamber of Commerce and rotary, is a coach for the Seneca High School mock trial program, and a JAG officer in the South Carolina National Guard.
